Drees & Sommer Hamburg under new management

On 1st July 2005, Phillip Goltermann assumed management of the regional project management office Drees & Sommer Hamburg GmbH. Goltermann (32) has been working with Drees & Sommer Munich since 1999. Under his management, activities of Drees & Sommer Hamburg will concentrate on core services in project management as well as construction and property consultancy.

Phillip Goltermann grew up in Hamburg and Bremen and is thus even more pleased of his new task in the North of Germany. "Target-oriented project management, multidisciplinary know-how, constructive cooperation and a comprehensive way of thinking have been our strengths for years and are prerequisite to attract our customers in Northern Germany."

Development activities resulting from procedures of option contracts are outsourced to the company DS-Bauconcept, where Managing Directors Günter Krause and Dr. Michael Krog have assumed exclusive company management and also accepted substantial company shares. Drees & Sommer will continue to be available as partner for project management and project procedures including guarantee of costs and deadlines.

We will be happy to send you a photograph of Phillip Goltermann. Just send a brief email to balz@stgt.dreso.com

Please send a specimen copy with publication of the contribution. Many thanks.
